

"What's Ackee?"

Ackee is Jamaica's national fruit. Cooked like a vegetable, it has a light, silky texture. This unique and extremely tasty dish looks like scrambled eggs when cooked but tastes like nothing else!!

"What's Calaloo?"

This popular Jamaican dish, related to the spinach family, is prepared with peppers and seasonings and is very flavourful!!

"What's Roti?"

Roti is a thin flat bread wrapped around curry chicken, curry goat or curry potato. The Dhalpuri roti has a layer of ground chickpeas in the centre!!

"Is everything hot & spicy?"

At Caribbean Twist, all of our dishes are very flavourful. JERK is HOT!! Our curry dishes have a "little kick" but not overly hot. If you want something equally flavourful but not hot, our Jamaican Style BBQ Chicken or our Stewed Oxtail may be the way to go!!

"I'm a vegetarian. What's for me?"

We provide a variety of tasty dishes suitable for vegetarians. Look for menu items marked with a V

"Caribbean & Nova Scotia's food and beverage connection"

Canada's three hundred year old tradition of trading rum for dried cod "salt fish" continues in Nova Scotia and Newfoundland where golden Rums from Jamaica, Barbados and Antigua are imported and aged for five years. The resulting hearty Rum is known locally as Screech
